Candlelight Tours

HISTORY COMES ALIVE

at the Asa Waters Mansion

AUGUST 7th | 7:00pm-9:00pm
123 Elm Street, Millbury

As darkness falls, the Asa Waters Mansion comes alive with history. Guests are invited to a fully immersive experience where they will witness Civil War era military officers planning strategy, a field hospital staffed by surgeons and nurses, household life, guards standing watch, music, faith, and civic duty, all unfolding throughout every room of the historic mansion. Guests will move through the home as observers, experiencing a household living under the shadow of war in an authentic and engaging way.

Following the candlelight tour, relax under our tent with live period era music by Shades of Gray, enjoy a cash bar, and light bites. Tours are offered every 15 minutes, and advance registration is required.
